THE MONDAY REPORT

LUCY KUBISZYN, EDITOR
November 7, 1988

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EGT-15-5
Date: 9-29-95

NEW PRESIDENT NAMED FOR SHELTON

Dr. Thomas E. Umphrey was selected recently to be the new president of Shelton State Community College. The appointment of Dr. Umphrey was announced by the Chancellor, Dr. Fred Gainous, and the State Board of Education on Thursday, October 27 in Montgomery. Dr. Umphrey came to Shelton as Dean of Special Programs in 1979. In 1985 he was appointed Executive Vice-President of the college. Dr. Umphrey received his Doctor of Education degree from the University of Alabama in 1984. He succeeds Leo Sumner who announced his retirement this past July.
Mr. Sumner has been president of Shelton State Community College since its creation in 1979. Before 1979 he was president of Shelton State Technical College.

EARLY REGISTRATION FOR WINTER QUARTER

EARLY REGISTRATION FOR WINTER QUARTER IS NOVEMBER 9-10 AND 14-15. REGISTRATION IS NOVEMBER 28 AND CLASSES WILL BEGIN ON NOVEMBER 29.

BAIN TO EXHIBIT AT SHELTON STATE

LEE BAIN, former Tuscaloosan, will exhibit watercolors, original prints and handmade paper works in the library of the Junior College Division of Shelton State October 31 - November 25.

Currently Bain is an instructor of commercial art at Atmore Vocation Center in Atmore, Alabama, as well as watercolor and papermaking workshops in Brewton. He has also taught art in the secondary schools and Jefferson Davis State Junior College.

He has also served as a judge for art shows, most recently the Tennessee Valley Art Association Exhibit in Tuscumbia, Alabama. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama and received his masters in art education from Troy University.

Bain's watercolors are reflective of his European travels and his handmade papers are either complete art works, or vehicles for printed images or paintings. He has won many awards for his art works.

The exhibit is free and open to the public during regular library hours.

VETERAN'S DAY HOLIDAY.

THE COLLEGE WILL BE CLOSED FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11 IN OBSERVANCE OF VETERAN'S DAY.

NEW OPTIONS WORKSHOP

OTIS HOLLOWAY OWENS, assistant dean of student services at the University of North Florida, led New Options participants in a special workshop on November 3-4. A graduate of Talladega College, Ms. Owens received a masters degree from Syracuse University and was associated with the Institute of Higher Education at the University of Alabama 1971-84. She helped participants in setting and evaluating goals for occupational, educational and personal achievements. The workshops were at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 3 and 9:30 a.m. on November 4. Both sessions were held at the junior college.

New options is a free service of Shelton State and is associated with the Displaced Homemakers Single Parent Network of Alabama. For more information on New Options, contact Dr. Paula Hayes.

MATH TEACHERS ATTEND MEETING

GUESNA DOHRMAN AND CAMILLE COCHRANE RECENTLY ATTENDED THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL ASSOCIATION OF TWO YEAR COLLEGES (AMATYC). While at the meeting, they presented a paper which focused on developmental mathematics education.

AMATYC is a national organization of math educators with 30 state affiliates. Mrs. Dohrman serves as president of the Alabama affiliate and Mrs. Cochrane as secretary. Both are owners of the Knowledge Tree Learning Center and MATHBITS, a mathematics newsletter for children.

ADULT STUDIES WELLNESS WORKSHOP

Dr. Milady Khoury-Murphy in cooperation with Adult Studies of Shelton State Community College recently presented a Wellness Workshop at the college. Special guest was University of Alabama basketball coach Wimp Sanderson. Topics discussed at the workshop included "Lowering Cholesterol," "Preventing Lung and Organ Disease," "Managing Stress," "The Benefits of Fitness," "Body Recall," and "Saving a Life."

THE SHELTON JUNIOR COLLEGE LIBRARY ASKED THAT THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT BE INCLUDED IN THE MONDAY REPORT:

The library is introducing a new shelving system. Please do not reshelve your books. Leave your books on the blue shelves in the open stacks. In the reference section, leave them on top of the shelves.